SELLER GUIDELINES

- Price your bigger items prior to the sale with tags or stickers that will stay on.
- Consider pricing small items in 25¢ or 50¢ increments you can quickly add without a calculator.
- Stage your merchandise and put like items together. Don't mix baby items with tools; display books/CDs/DVDs so buyers can see titles without removing items from the box.
- Be prepared for wind – display breakable items in shallow boxes or baskets, put a paperweight on light items that could blow away.
- Bring change and small bills; keep your money on you in a fanny pack or apron. A cash box can easily be stolen.
- Bring a calculator or paper/pen if you aren't good at adding/making change.
- Bring a measuring tape if you have items buyers might need to measure.
- Bring shopping bags and wrapping materials if you have fragile items. We are encouraging buyers to bring their own bags for sold items as well.
- For your own comfort, pack sunglasses, a hat, comfortable shoes and sunscreen.
- Event will not be rescheduled if it rains.
- Spread the word! Tell friends, family and neighbors about the yard sale. Post the yard sale ad at your condo, gym, place of worship, office bulletin board and your favorite stores.
- In addition to garage and rummage sale items, we will also have an area for Home Crafts, flower arrangements and house decoration items etc.
- No prepared food vendors allowed.
- No firearms or ammunition may be sold.
- No live animals may be sold
- The earliest you may begin setting up your booth is 6:30am.
- You must bring all your own supplies and materials including: tables, chairs, bags, etc.
- No electricity will be supplied.
- You must remove any leftover items or trash when the rummage sale is complete.
- There will be no on-site registrations.
- No refunds on booth rental
- All vehicles must be removed from the street by 7:45am no exceptions
- Drivers must drive slow and be cautious when in Rummage Sale area for Set up and tear down
